

Leadership Team commissioned by Bishop David Bentley on 12th June 2011

Elizabeth Wall has been on the Leadership Team since St. Chad's received its first Bishop's Mandate. Ordained Deacon in 2000 and Priest a year later she has served as Associate Minister at St. Chad's since then. She works full-time as a dentist and runs a mainly NHS practice in the centre of Lichfield.

Allen Hudson moved to Lichfield in December 2009. He knew on entering St. Chad's for the first time that it was going to be his new spiritual home and a very special place for him. He and Mary were married at St Chad's in October last year. He is active in many aspects of worship including as a sub-deacon at some Eucharist services. He is in training for local ministry.

Jean Geobey has been a member of St. Chad's worshipping community for many years and has been actively involved in several aspects of church life. She has been a member of the Leadership Team since 2004 and in September 2008 was commissioned as Lay Pastoral Care Minister. She lives with her husband Peter and they have two children and four grandchildren.

Stephen (Steve) Wilkinson came to St. Chad's soon after retiring in 2008 after 38 years in Madagascar where he was involved in education and social work and where he also met his wife Hardy. They both enjoy taking part in a variety of activities at St. Chad's and the ecumenical scene in Lichfield.

Jennifer Hobson has attended St. Chad's since Easter 2007 and loves every minute! She likes reading, the theatre (especially Les Miserables), and listening to her favourite musicians, QUEEN! If she could be an animal it would be an albatross and she greatly admires Einstein. When she grows up she wants to be a philosopher. Her favourite hymn is 'Mine Eyes Have Seen the Glory'.

Helen Ranger began attending St. Chad's in 2007. She had little experience of Church but found St. Chad's very welcoming. She still regards herself as a newcomer but is enjoying learning about Christianity and building a relationship with God. She was confirmed in June 2009. She married Tim at St. Chad's in October 2009 and they live with her son Alex. She works as an accountant for a software company.

Tony Critchley has been associated with St. Chad's for nearly 40 years. His mother was active in the Mothers' Union, one son was married at St. Chad's and his children and two grandchildren were baptised here. With his wife Sue he has contributed to Marriage Preparation and to the Taize style worship. He is a diocesan governor of St. Chad's school and supervises our new Children and Family Worker.

The new Rector, when appointed will complete the Leadership Team.
